J. W. Campbell of Mercedes spent the day here yesterday.

Geo. McGonigle made a business trip to Mercedes today.

A. M. Deyo of Lyford was in the city attending to business yesterday.

A. E. Chapman of Mercedes is transacting business in the city today.

C. W. Hall left this morning for San Antonio to spend a few days "doing" the fair.

Thos. L. Jones of Harlingen spent yesterday in the city returning home this morning.

Messrs. Charles and John Cham- pton of Point Isabel, were in the city yesterday on business.

S. H. Jackson, after spending a few days in the city, returned this morning to his old home in Houston.

Burt Glover of McAllen came down Thursday night and is spending a few days in the city looking after business matters.

D. S. Loring of San Benito came down yesterday to purchase farming implements and seeds, returning this morning.

Mrs. J. J. Hackney left this morn- ing for McAllen to spend several days with Mr. Hackney who is at present located there.

E. P. Maule of McAllen came down on the branch yesterday afternoon and left this morning for San Antonio where he will spend the winter.

J. S. McLaughlin of Mission who has been in the city for several days, returned this morning to pay off the workmen engaged on the canal there.

S. A. Robertson, chief engineer of the new San Antonio and Rio Grande railroad, came down on the branch yesterday afternoon, returning this morning.

A. W. Amthor and W. H. Amthor left this morning for Waco, their former home, where they will spend a short time with their parents, who reside there.

E. F. Rowson, after several days absence from the city came down last night from the North bringing with him a party of prospectors, seventeen in number.

E. Earnest Moore of Llano Grande came down Thursday night to attend the meeting of the stockholders of the Laguna Vista Club held here yes- terday, returning home this morning.

J. S. Rowe, of the Variety Store, of this city, has been quite sick for several days, and is yet confined to his bed, but we are glad to learn, is considerably improved this morning.

F. W. Truitt, the popular travel- ing man who formerly resided here but now of San Antonio, was in the city yesterday mingling with his many friends and incidentally calling on his trade.

B. H. Frazier of Raymondville came down Thursday night to attend the meeting of the stockholders of the Laguna Vista Club which was held here yesterday, returning home this morning.

J. P. Stephenson, who has been spending a few days with his family in Corsicana, returned last night and left this morning for Harlingen where he is extensively interested in real estate.

Franklin Russell, a former Brown- ville boy, arrived in the city last night from Guantanamo, Cuba, where he holds a responsible position with the Central and South American Cable Company. Mr. Russell will be in the city for some time, the guest of his father, T. B. Russell.

Mr. John Champion will move his family to Brownsville in a few days, and enter his children in school at St. Joseph College. The family will occupy his cottage just completed on St. Charles street.

Mrs. M. A. Wells, sister of Mrs. E. Harkness, proprietress of the new Hotel Majestic, left this morning for Raymondville, where she will spend several days with her father and mother who reside there.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Eberhardt and child of Shelbourne Falls, Mass., ar- rived in the city last night, and at present are staying at the Miller Ho- tel. Rev. Eberhardt has accepted the pastorate of the Episcopal church in this city.

W. H. Schmidt has returned from Topo Chico Springs, Monterey, Mexi- co, where he spent several weeks for the benefit of his health. His many friends here will be pleased to learn that he returns almost com- pletely recovered from his serious ill- ness.

F. W. Rockwell and his son John D. of Chicago, are here for a short stay. The elder Mr. Rockwell is one of the pioneers of irrigation in this section, having been a large stockholder in the Brownsville Land and Irrigation company. He, however, still has property interests here.

Mr. Clevenger, of Texarkana, is in the city looking for some of the good small tracts of farming land ad- jacent to Brownsville. He has just returned from a visit up the branch road in Hidalgo county. He appears very much interested in the valley lands and products generally.
